04.09.2025 — Submitted (Nga)

- From: Nga Thi Tuyet Tran → To: Finanzamt Österreich, 1000 Wien, Postfach 260
- Subject: Lawful Rebuttal and Notice [Rechtmäßiger Widerspruch und Mitteilung]
- Content (EN translation):
 - Full rejection of Rückforderungsbescheid 13319183.
 - Grounds:
 - No liability for administrative errors — funds were issued by Republic itself.
 - Best interests of the child (Art. 3 CRC) violated — reduces children's resources.
 - Protection of legitimate expectation — funds received in good faith, planned for family's subsistence.
 - Subsistence minimum & hardship — repayment threatens existence of mother and children.
 - Unjust enrichment & double funding — children were in state custody; state cannot fund third parties and claw back from mother simultaneously. Demanded full disclosure of payments for April–Aug 2025.
 - Proportionality & fairness — measure grossly disproportionate given unlawful removal of children.
 - No profit from wrongdoing — state actors caused harm; cannot enrich themselves by demanding repayment.
 - Reiterated: purpose of family allowance is for children's welfare; saving is lawful.
 - Declared: any enforcement = unlawful coercion and adds to Republic's liability.

- Public record: published under Public Notice No. 29 (DGNO-029), confirming liens and invoices against Republic (€1 Trillion lien, €1.5 Trillion lien, €873 Billion current liability).
- Prosecutor's ruling of 08.08.2025 (16 St 150125m) cited: €74,000 invoice by Nga was a lawful payment demand, not a crime, case dismissed (§190 StPO).
- Closing: Rückforderung rejected in full; no obligation exists; further steps = unlawful trespass and expanded liability.
- Read receipt: not yet confirmed (sent 04.09.2025).

Content of Submission

1. Formal Complaint (Beschwerde - BH Spittal Bereich 6.pdf)

- Addressed against BH Spittal/Drau, Bereich Soziales, Jugend und Familie (Bereich 6).
 - Accusations:
 - Abuse of authority.
 - Unlawful child removal.
 - Intimidation, threats, coercion.
 - Neglect of children's rights.
 - Requested urgent intervention from the Volksanwaltschaft.

2. VA_Beschwerde.pdf (main complaint document)

- Detailed narrative:
 - Reported repeated misconduct of the father, incl. alcohol use during contact, drinking and driving, psychological cruelty.

- Stated: Jugendamt ignored these risks, continued to press for contact.
 - No written protocols given to her despite multiple reports (violates §138 ABGB, CRC).
 - Father accused of fraud/forgery: used revoked document and invalid copy of Nga's passport to obtain a German travel document.
 - Psychological evidence: referenced legal commentary (Dettenborn/Walter, Familienrecht, 2016) confirming that from 3 years, children's will is considered stable and must be respected.
 - Described children's trauma: nightmares, fear of father, regression (enuresis).
 - Stated: father's behavior represents a pattern of post-separation violence and coercion.
 - Declared her action (suspension of contact) was protective and lawful under mother's duty to safeguard welfare.

3. VA_beschwerdeformular.pdf (official form)

- Institution named: BH Spittal, Bereich 6.
 - Grounds: "Amtsmissbrauch, Gewalt, Drohung, Einschüchterung".
 - Complaint submitted formally through Volksanwaltschaft channels.

4. VA_EmailVerkehrJugendamt.pdf (Email Correspondence with BH Spittal Jugendamt)

 VA_EmailVerkehrJugendamt.pdf

- Senders/Recipients: Primarily Roland Mathiesl (Bereichsleiter) and Claudia Hudelist (Sozialarbeiterin).
- Tone of the Jugendamt officials: authoritarian, directive, repeatedly pressuring Nga to comply with handovers.
- Pattern of threats/coercion:
 - Threat of fines: If Nga did not comply with visitation orders, she would be fined.
 - Threat of police enforcement: Warnings that police would be sent to enforce contact if she refused.
 - Threat of legal escalation: References to Jugendamt filing to the Bezirksgericht to compel cooperation.
- Nga's replies:
 - She cited §138 ABGB (the right of the child to have their will respected) and the UN Convention on the Rights of the Child (Art. 12 CRC).
 - Stated that both Aurora and Akua verbally refused to visit the father, expressing fear and resistance.

- Declared that forcing children against their will would constitute psychological violence.
 - Key contradiction:
 - Despite Nga invoking clear legal provisions, Jugendamt officials dismissed her position, reducing the children's voices to "influenced by mother."
 - Repeatedly reframed the situation as Nga being "non-cooperative," ignoring that children's statements themselves should be decisive under Austrian and international law.
 - Demonstrates:
 - Misuse of authority: Instead of upholding children's rights, Jugendamt weaponized legal tools (fines, police threats) against the protective parent.
 - Systematic coercion: Pressure was constant, leaving Nga in a situation where compliance = traumatizing her children, resistance = punishment.

5. Meine Tochter und ich waren am 26.docx (Personal Statement)

 Meine Tochter und ich waren am 26.docx

Meine Tochter und ich waren am ...

- Narrative of incident on the 26th (June 26, 2024):
 - Nga described taking Aurora to a scheduled meeting (visitation handover).
 - Aurora refused to go with the father — she clung to her mother, cried, and expressed clearly that she did not feel safe.
 - Father allegedly responded with anger and verbal aggression, escalating the scene.
 - Officials present (Jugendamt/social workers) pressured Nga to force the child over.
 - Nga refused to use force on her daughter, citing her duty of care and the child's expressed will.
 - Consequences noted in the docx:
 - Aurora suffered psychological stress afterwards (nightmares, fear of being taken, regression in behavior).
 - Nga recorded the event to preserve evidence of the pattern of coercion and the officials' refusal to listen to the child's will.
 - Importance:
 - This document reinforces that the children's will was consistent and clear.
 - Authorities disregarded it, instead trying to criminalize the protective parent for respecting the child's voice.
 - Demonstrates a direct misuse of power: rather than supporting the mother in her duty to protect, Jugendamt treated her protection as obstruction.

6. Press Articles

26.09.2024 — Ombudsman Letter (Forwarded to Governor)

- From: Volksanwalt Mag. Bernhard Achitz (case handler: Mag. Elke Sarto)
- To: Governor Dr. Peter Kaiser
- Subject: Contact Rights [Kontaktrecht]

Content: Dear Governor!

Ms. Nga Thi Tuyet Tran, Berg im Drautal, filed a complaint against the District Authority Spittal an der Drau with the Ombudsman’s Office. She stated that Child and Youth Services are not acting objectively and are favoring the father. She was at the authority for the first time on 26 June 2024 and reported that the father was regularly under the influence of alcohol during contacts with the children and also consumed alcohol while driving. Furthermore, he exercised psychological violence against the daughter. Both children were therefore afraid of him and wanted contact rights to be suspended until further notice. After visits, the children had nightmares and were already showing behavioral abnormalities. Nevertheless, the District Authority demanded that she continue to hand over the children to the father on visitation days.

At the beginning of August, an incident occurred at the Kirtag in Villach. The father shouted at the four-year-old daughter, pulled her by the hand, and let her fall to the ground. Bystanders called the police. He was also under the influence of alcohol at that time.

Sincerely,
Volksanwalt Mag. Bernhard Achitz e.h.

Handwritten Notes (visible on scan)

- Top right margin: “26.06.”, “§138 ABGB”, “Verf. & KJHT”, with underlined/boxed markings.
- Next to “Kontaktrecht”: handwritten notes about “Verlässliche Kontrolle / Loyalitätsprüfung” (handwriting partly unclear).
- Bottom margin: “Besuchsbegleitung!! für Abholung nächstens” written by hand (emphasized with underlines and exclamation marks).
 - 🔍 Top right margin:
 - “26.06.” → “26 June” (likely referencing the 26 June 2024 incident mentioned in the text).
 - “§138 ABGB” → “Section 138 Austrian Civil Code (children’s will must be respected)”.
 - “Verf. & KJHT” → “Proceedings & Youth Welfare Office”.
 - (all underlined/boxed for emphasis)
 - 🔍 Next to “Kontaktrecht”:
 - “Verlässliche Kontrolle / Loyalitätsprüfung” → “Reliable monitoring / Loyalty check”
 - (the handwriting is slightly unclear, but the meaning indicates a demand for strict oversight and testing of loyalty or reliability in contact rights situations).
 - 🔍 Bottom margin:
 - “Besuchsbegleitung!! für Abholung nächstens” → “Visit supervision!! for next pickup”
 - (written emphatically, with underlines and exclamation marks — highlighting that all future child handovers should be under strict supervised visitation conditions).
- Additional notice: Nga never mentioned, that the father on the news paper article, who was abusive towards his daughter, was the alleged father. Also, the child on the news paper article also doesn’t fit the age of Aurora.

08.08.2025 — Formal Request for Disclosure

- From: Staatsanwaltschaft Klagenfurt
- To: Nga Thi Tuyet Tran
- Subject: Investigation against Thi Tuyet Nga Tran on suspicion of § 247a para. 2 StGB.
- Title: Reasoning for termination pursuant to § 194 para. 2 last sentence StPO.
- Main Text (translated to English):

According to the report of LSE Kärnten under file number PAD/25/01425627/001/KRIM, the letter of Nga Thi Tuyet Tran dated 01.06.2025, which was addressed to MMag. Markus Lerch (BH Spittal/Drau), was forwarded. Reference is also made to the previous case 10 St 70/25b. In this respect, at least internal inquiries were carried out.

The letter of 01.06.2025 contains a payment demand (financial compensation) in the amount of EUR 74,000.00. The suspect (Nga) stated that due to the actions of the named persons (in connection with the unlawful removal of her children), she incurred costs.

The criminal provision of § 247a StGB requires a hostile movement (a group of many people) that aims to fundamentally reject the sovereignty rights of the Republic and to assume such sovereignty rights for itself. Accordingly, there must be a long-term, repeated, complete rejection of sovereignty rights.

In this case, there is neither suspicion of the accused belonging to such a group, nor that such a group is oriented toward the required aims. Therefore, the proceedings were terminated pursuant to the legal and factual considerations of § 190 StPO.
